TRUSTEES OF THE NEW YORK SOCIETY

The Trustees of the New York Society Library present to the members this their report for the year ending March 31, 1914:

The Treasurer's report submitted herewith, and to which attention is invited, shows that the yearly subscriptions continue to increase. A number of new perpetually free shares have been sold.

The most interesting event of the year has been the recovery of the original parchment charter of the Society Library, granted by George the Third of England in 1772. It is said to have disappeared sometime between 1840 and 1854 and was restored to the Library in October, 1913, by a resident of Brooklyn, in whose possession it had been for many years. The Trustees are much gratified to have recovered this interesting historical document, as its disappearance had been a frequent subject of conjecture. It is now in a fireproof vault, through the kind instrumentality of Mr. Beverly Chew, Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

It seems to have been the accepted thing for charters of institutions founded before the Revolution to disappear, for in 1848 the Secretary of the New York Chamber of Commerce (which was founded in 1758) reported that its charter could not be found although it had been seen twenty-five years before in the old Walton House, preserved in a mahogany case, with a circle at one end, to allow the entry of the old Colonial Seal, and the case was also seen on the night of the great fire.*

* Colonial Records of the New York Chamber of Commerce, by John Austin Stevens, Jr., pages 327 and 371.

Numerous gifts have been received during the past year. General Rush C. Hawkins has presented a complete set of the publications of the Union League Club, which is said to be the only complete set besides the one in the possession of the club itself. From W Emlen Roosevelt, Esq., were received 88 historical works; from Henry E. Gregory, Esq., 97 volumes and 121 pamphlets on social science; from General Nelson H. Henry, 233 historical and medical works, and from Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, Esq., "The Civic Ancestry of New York City and State," one of ten copies specially color blazoned. To Mrs. Robert W de Forest, Miss Mary Drisler, John Leonard, Esq., the Evening Post and others whose names are mentioned in the list of donors, the Trustees desire to express their thanks and appreciation for valuable gifts.

Mr F Augustus Schermerhorn has presented another catalogue case of seventy-five card trays in continuation of his previous generous gift.

A list of Shareholders, Trustees and Officers of the Society Library with photographs of all the Chairmen of the Trustees and pictures of all the Society Library buildings at different periods, has recently been published. No list of Shareholders had been printed since 1881 before this.

The desirability of limiting the number of Shareholders to 1,000 has been discussed by members of the Board of Trustees. The experience of clubs and membership libraries has shown that a limited membership tends to increase the appreciation of shares.

The Trustees are gratified to be able to report a year of progress, at a time when business depression has been prevalent.
